Powering change and innovation in transport

The only single source of public transport data via API in the UK

The most comprehensive transport data platform for the UK

We are Britain's first, comprehensive open solution for transport data. We've got over 1000 developers and organisations building on our platform with all the open data feeds you need from our key industry sources. Open content, no discrimination with simple pricing structures backed by guarantees.

 Live departures &amp; arrivals Train, tube and bus arrivals, anywhere across the UK	 Timetables The full spectrum of timetables for train, tube, bus, coach or ferry	 Journey planning Journey planning tools for public transport, car or cycling
 Tweet mapping Social sentiment what exactly are commuters talking about and where	 Performance indicators Historic and real time data on tubes, rail and bus performance	 Fares Because cost matters, we have rail, bus and tube fares across the UK

The screenshot displays three distinct open data portals. On the left is the Ordnance Survey website, showing a map of Burghclere, Highclere and St. Mary Bourne with various data layers. In the center is the Land Registry 'Open Data' page, which provides information on downloading house price index data. On the right is the Companies House website, showing details for ZENITH PRINT (UK) LIMITED, including its registered address and financial information.
